SOLEMNITY OF THE SEVEN SORROWS OF OUR LADY

PENTECOST XVII • SS. JANUARIUS, BPM & COMPANIONS, MM

OUR LADY OF LA SALETTE

¶ THE SEVEN SORROWS

Catechism Classes resume today at 10:40 AM. The Blessing of the Sick takes place after all Masses, in honor of the Mother of Sorrows. (The Blessing of Expectant Mothers has been transferred to next Sunday.) Vespers with Benediction are at 4:45 PM.

¶ THIS WEEK

Our Knights of the Sacred Heart meet on Monday, feast of the great general St. Eustace the Martyr. The hated tax collector turned beloved Evangelist, St. Matthew, receives our homage Tuesday. Wednesday's St. Thomas of Villanova was a great humble bishop who loved the poor. Thursday's St. Thecla was a disciple of St. Paul, and is a patron of the dying. The last of Our Lady's feasts falls Friday, "of Ransom, or of Mercy." We honor her again on Saturday.

THE SORROWFUL MOTHER

*O all ye that pass by the way, attend, and
see if there be any sorrow like to My sorrow!*

Is this, then, the first cry of that sweet Babe whose coming brought such pure joy to our earth? Is the standard of suffering to be so soon unfurled over the cradle of such lovely innocence? Yet the heart of mother Church has not deceived her; this feast, coming at such a time, is ever the answer to that question of the expectant human race: What shall this Child be?

The Savior to come is not only the reason of Mary's existence, He is also her exemplar in all things. It is as His Mother that the Blessed Virgin came, and therefore as the Mother of Sorrows; for the God, whose future birth was the very cause of her own birth, is to be in this world as a Man of Sorrows and acquainted with infirmity. To whom shall I compare thee? sings the prophet of lamentations: O Virgin...great as the sea is thy destruction. On the mountain of the Sacrifice, as Mother she gave her Son, as Bride she offered herself together with Him; by her sufferings both as Bride and as Mother, she was the co-redemptress of the human race. This teaching and these recollections were deeply engraved on our hearts on that other feast of our Lady's Dolors, which immediately preceded Holy Week.

Christ dieth now no more: and Our Lady's sufferings are over. Nevertheless the Passion of Christ is continued in His elect, in His Church, against which hell vents the rage it cannot exercise against Himself. To this Passion of Christ's mystical Body of which she is also a Mother, Mary still contributes her compassion; how often have her venerated images attested the fact, by miraculously shedding tears!

NEW IN THE BOOKSTORE

The honey fundraiser in the bookstore has been going well. Some lucky parishioners got to try the honey vinegar pie at the parish picnic that Mr. Hagle the beekeeper brought. I heard great pie reviews and will try to provide the recipe in the bookstore to go with the sweet bears. Get your hefty bear weighing over a pound and a half for a very reasonable price of $12. Local, Ohio, raw sweetness, get yours while supplies last.

New book titles are available in the bookstore. The Catholic trivia game will be back in stock again. What a great way to hone your knowledge on subjects pertaining to the Faith. This is the traditional Catholic version. Great gift idea for the teen or young adult on your list.

Eternal Father, look upon the Sacred Heart of Jesus which I offer to Thee as a Vase that it might receive the wine of Thy Justice, and in passing through this Holy Channel that it may be changed for us into the Wine of Thy Mercy!

This prayer was dictated also [to Sr. St. Pierre], and He showed her "by passing through this Holy Channel, the bitter sweet wine of His Mercy." (Oct. 25, 1846.) This prayer saved the country from the conspiracy of Communists. (Oct. 25, 1846.)

DOLORES

Crowned a Queen on queenly skies
Shines Mary mild with beaming eyes,
While angels pure descend and rise,
Resounding strong with ringing cries

Her names of joys and glories.

But when amid these cries of fame
She hears the earth one word proclaim,

With greatest joy she greets that name—

Dolores.

For "Dolores" was her earthly share,
In grief and woe she deigned to bear
Christ's cruel Passion, Death and Care:

Yea, Sorrow was the weary stair
By which she reached her glories
Mother of Sorrows, turn thine ear
To all thine own in sorrow here,

And hear the name to thee so dear—
Dolores.

— Fray Angelico Chavez, O.F.M.
(Lovingly dedicated to our own Dolores Ritze)

Our Lady lamented to St. Bridget that very few consoled Her by meditating on Her Sorrows, and "that the greater part of the world lived in forgetfulness of them: 'I look around to all who are on earth, to see if by chance there are any who pity me, and meditate upon my Sorrows, and I find that there are very few. Therefore, my daughter, though I am forgotten by many, at least do you not forget me; consider my anguish, and imitate, as far as you can, my grief.'"

Joys and sorrows come these busy September days, not single file but in a crowd which seems to belie the promise of the calm quiet dawn, mist rising from the grass, young deer feeding in the distance. Autumn mornings.

If we start the day with prayer, all will be well, even should this day open to the day of eternity. Another faithful usher has been called to do service before God. Mike Briggs died suddenly Thursday night. A quiet man, you could count on him for seemingly countless years watching at the doors, praying, helping and being faithful. May Heaven's doors open to him.

One of our loyal 5:45 part-time ushers, Ralph Otis, is dying of cancer, and we pray for him, as for a man who fell away a long time ago, and lies silent and intubated in the ICU. We pray for him, too, to have a good death.

The first anniversary of Fr. Cekada's death was duly marked on September 11 with Solemn Mass, the beautiful music he would have loved, a nice social breakfast, and a visit to his grave at St. Stephen's Cemetery to pray the Rosary. It was a good attendance throughout, and I noted all of the young people, fittingly, who rendered his memory this homage, and his soul this help. It was a quiet, peaceful and somehow very somber way to mark the day.

All of last week the seminarians were on retreat as they prepared for Subdiaconate. Yesterday's long and so impressive ceremony of ordination to the first Major Order is also somewhat of a landmark. Since I've been a bishop, since Bishop Sanborn started his seminary, ordinations have come singly, one at a time. But for the first time, and in the midst of grief and revolution, Almighty God has blessed us and our apostolate here at St. Gertrude the Great with the vocation of four young men in yesterday's Pontifical Mass. May He bless them, and us, with perseverance. May He reward Bishop Sanborn and his priest professors for their dedicated service. Your interest, prayers, and support are so much appreciated.

Fr. Rodrigo da Silva is waiting to finish quarantine in Mexico City and making his retreat for Consecration. The Consecration of a Bishop is perhaps the richest and rarest of ceremonies. We pray it will help to ensure the Apostolic Succession in our midst, and for our faithful worldwide. You are invited to this historic ceremony on Wednesday, September 29, Michaelmas, at 10:00 AM. A dinner, of course, follows.

It's nice to see so many bright and devout young children in our school this September. They sing now at the 11:25 daily High Mass on school days. It is nice as well to be giving our traditional blessings. Today we honor our Sorrowful Mother and bless our sick. Next Sunday we bless and dedicate our children to their Guardian Angel. And...after that, Rosary Sunday. At Breakfast, we will hear about the life of the new bishop.

Persevere with us in prayer, especially the prayer of prayers, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Joys will be doubled, and sorrows find their proper solace. The mysteries of the Rosary meld with those of the Mass, and life.

"Through the Virgin Mother, may God grant you peace and salvation."

– Bishop Dolan

"Mother of Christ, help me to be willing to accept the suffering that is the condition of love. Help me accept the grief of seeing those whom I love suffer, and when they die let me share in their death by compassion. Give me the faith that knows Christ in them, and knows that His love is the key to the mystery of suffering. Help me, Blessed Mother, to see with your eyes, to think with your mind, to accept with your will. Help me to believe that it is Christ who suffers in innocent children, in those who die in the flower of life, in those whose death is an act of reparation, in those who are sacrificed for others. Remind me that their suffering is Christ's love healing the world, and when I suffer for them and with them, I too am given the power of His redeeming love."

St. Philomena has loved justice and hated iniquity. Her heart was filled with love for the Law of God! Let us set to work sowing the ground with acts of virtue. The more abundant the seed, the greater will be the harvest. We ask St. Philomena to help us acquire the treasures of piety, patience, charity, obedience and of all Christian virtues. Let us seize, today, every opportunity for grace. Aid me, St. Philomena; be my anchor of hope!

WHY I AM A CATHOLIC

I am a Catholic...

Because the Catholic Church possesses all the marks of this Church established by Christ:

The Catholic Church is ONE because she everywhere professes the same faith, has the same sacrifice and sacraments, and is governed by one and the same visible head, the Pope. All non-Catholic sects lack unity. Because of the principle of private judgment they are continually splitting and subdividing. They have no central authority to hold them together. Their doctrines and practices are changing from day to day.

The Catholic Church is HOLY because its Founder, Jesus Christ, is all-holy; because its doctrines are holy; because its means of sanctification, the sacraments, are holy; because it produces holy men and saints.

The Catholic Church is UNIVERSAL because it subsists throughout the ages, teaches all nations, and maintains all the truths given to it by Christ. The sects are not spread over the whole world but rather localized, nor do they teach everything that Our Lord taught the Apostles.

The Catholic Church is APOSTOLIC because it was founded on Christ's Apostles, because it is governed by their doctrines through their lawful successors, and because it never ceases to teach their doctrine. The sects cannot trace their origin to Christ or to the Apostles.

Considerations on the Great Reset and the New World Order

No one will be part of the New World Order unless he carries out an act of worship to Lucifer.

No one will enter the New Age unless he receives Luciferian initiation.

Liaisons dangereuses

As Michael J. Matt has reported in a recent video at The Remnant, today we are beginning to put together all the pieces of the mosaic, and we discover—by the very admission of one of the protagonists—that Msgr. Hélder Câmara, Archbishop of Olinda and Recife in Brazil, had a meeting in those years with the young Klaus Schwab, the founder of the World Economic Forum and theorizer of the Great Reset. Once Schwab recognized Câmara for his opposition to the traditional Church and his revolutionary and pauperist theories, he invited him to the Davos Forum, considering his participation in this event as extremely important in view of the project of the New Order. We know that Hélder Câmara was among the organizers of the “Pact of the Catacombs,” which was signed by about forty ultra-progressivist Bishops on 16 November 1965, a few days before the closing of the Council. Among the heretical theses of that document, there is also collaboration in the establishment of “another, new social order” based on justice and equality. And we are not surprised to learn that among the signatories there was also Msgr. Enrique Angelelli, the auxiliary bishop of Cordoba in Argentina, “[a] point of reference for then-Father Jorge Mario Bergoglio”. Bergoglio himself declared right from the beginning of his Pontificate that he agreed with the demands of the Pact of the Catacombs. On 20 October 2019, during the Synod on the Amazon, the celebration of the pact between the conspirators was repeated in the Catacombs of Santa Domitilla, confirming that the plan begun at the Council had found fulfillment precisely in Jorge Mario Bergoglio. Far from distancing himself from the ultra-progressivists who support him and who determined his election at the last Conclave, Bergoglio never misses an opportunity to give proof of his perfect coherence with the plan of the New World Order, beginning with the collaboration of Vatican commissions and dicasteries with environmentalism of a Malthusian matrix and their participation in the Council for Inclusive Capitalism, a global alliance with the Rothschilds, the Rockefeller Foundation, and large banks. So on the one hand we have David Rockefeller with the Trilateral Commission, and on the other we have Klaus Schwab, who is related by marriage with the Rothschilds (here), with the World Economic Forum, and both of them are arm-in-arm with the head of the Catholic Church to establish the New Order by means of the Great Reset, as has been planned since the 1950’s.

The world depopulation plan

Among the associates of this pactum sceleris there must also be counted some members of the Pontifical Academy for Life, which recently had its organizational structure overturned by Bergoglio himself when he removed the members who were most faithful to the Magisterium, replacing them with supporters of depopulation, contraception, and abortion. There should be no surprise at the Holy See’s support for vaccines: in June 2011 the Sovereign Independent carried the headline on its front page: “Depopulation Through Forced Vaccination: The Zero Carbon Solution!” Beside the headline, a photograph of Bill Gates was accompanied by a quote from him: “The world today has 6.8 billion people. That’s headed up to about 9 billion. Now if we do a really great job on new vaccines, health care, reproductive services [abortion and contraception], we lower that by perhaps 10 or 15 percent.” This is what Bill Gates said eleven years ago. Today he is one of the shareholders of the Black Rock group that finances the pharmaceutical companies that produce the vaccines, one of the main sponsors of the World Health Organization (WHO), and also of a myriad of public and private entities connected to health. At his side we curiously find George Soros, the “philanthropist” of the Open Society, which together with the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation recently invested in a British company that produces swabs for Covid testing. And since we are talking about economic issues, I would like to recall that the Holy See has held shares worth about €20 million in two pharmaceutical companies that have produced a contraceptive drug, and more recently it invested in a fund that guaranteed very high profits in the event of a geopolitical or pandemic crisis thanks to speculation on international currencies, the “Geo-Risk” fund managed by the Merrill Lynch investment bank, which had to close it because of its skyrocketing yields after the first few months of the pandemic. Other capital, coming from the “Peter’s Pence” collection, had been used to finance various other initiatives, even collaborating with [Italian businessman] Lapo Elkann, whose endeavors include Rocketman, the autobiographical film of Elton John. To say nothing of the real estate speculations and the purchase of the London building at 60 Sloane Avenue that the news coverage has amply informed us on, a purchase that I know, from a reliable source, was decided on by Bergoglio himself. And then there’s China: always in the name of “coherence” and the “church of the poor for the poor” that is so dear to Bergoglio’s heart, there are those who believe that the secret Accord prepared by the Jesuits and former-Cardinal Theodore McCarrick may have obtained substantial funding from the communist regime in Beijing in exchange for the Vatican’s silence over the persecution of Catholics and the violation of human rights.

Deep state interference

There have been manifold examples of interference by the deep state in the life of the Church. We cannot forget the emails of John Podesta and Hillary Clinton, which show the intention to oust Benedict XVI from the papacy and so to initiate a new “springtime of the Church” that would be progressivist and globalist, which later came about with the resignation of Benedict and the election of the Argentine. Nor can we overlook the interference of entities and institutions that are anything but close to religion, such as the B’nai B’rith, in dictating the direction of the “renewal” of the Church after Vatican II and most of all under this Pontificate. Finally, we should remember on the one hand the disdainful refusals to grant audiences to conservative political and institutional personalities, and on the other hand the passionate smiling encounters with leaders of the Left and of progressivism, along with expressions of enthusiastic satisfaction on the occasion of their election. Many of them owe their success to having attended universities run by the Society of Jesus or circles of Catholicism that in Italy would be called Dossettian, where the network of social and political relations constitutes a sort of progressive Freemasonry and ensures dazzling careers for so-called “adult Catholics,” those who use the name “Christian” without behaving consistently with Christian faith and morality in their service of public affairs: Joe Biden and Nancy Pelosi; Romano Prodi, Mario Monti, Giuseppe Conte, and Mario Draghi; to name only a few. As we can see, the cooperation between the deep state and deep church is long-standing and has now produced the results hoped for by its supporters, with very serious damage to both the State and religion.

The closure of churches in early 2020, even before the civil authorities imposed the lockdowns; the prohibition of the celebration of Masses and the administration of the Sacraments during the pandemic emergency; the grotesque ceremony performed on 27 March 2020 in Saint Peter’s Square; the insistence on vaccines and their promotion as morally legitimate despite having been produced with cell lines originating with aborted fetuses; Bergoglio’s declarations that the genetic serum represents a “moral duty” for every Christian; the introduction of the “Green Pass” health passport in the Vatican and more recently in Catholic schools and in some seminaries; the Holy See prohibiting Bishops from announcing that they are against the vaccination obligation, promptly endorsed by certain Bishops’ Conferences—these are all elements that demonstrate the subordination of the deep church to the orders of the deep state, and the way in which the Bergoglian church is an integral part of the globalist plan. If we combine all this with the idolatrous cult of the pachamama right under the arches of Saint Peter’s Basilica; the insistence on irenicist ecumenism, pacifism, and pauperism; the endorsement of situation ethics and the substantial legitimization of adultery and concubinage in Amoris Laetitia; the declaration that the death penalty is morally illicit; the endorsement of left-wing politicians, revolutionary leaders, and abortion activists; the words of understanding for LGBT issues, homosexuals, and transsexuals; the silence over the legitimization of homosexual unions and the even more disconcerting silence over the blessing of sodomitical couples by German Bishops and priests; and the prohibition of the Tridentine Mass with the abolition of Benedict XVI’s Motu Proprio Summorum Pontificum, we realize that Jorge Mario Bergoglio is carrying out the task entrusted to him by the globalist elite, which wants him to be the liquidator of the Catholic Church and the founder of a philanthropic and ecumenical sect of Masonic inspiration that is meant to constitute the Universal Religion in support of the New Order. Whether this action is being carried out with full awareness, out of fear, or under blackmail, nothing detracts from the gravity of what is happening, nor from the moral responsibility of those who promote it.
