A GREAT SECRET FOR PRESERVING PEACE OF HEART

A great secret for preserving peace of heart is to do nothing with overeagerness, but to act always calmly, without disquiet. We are not asked to do much, but to do well. At the Last Day God will not examine whether we have performed a multitude of works, but whether we have sanctified our souls in doing them. Now the means of sanctifying ourselves is to do everything for God and to do perfectly whatever we have to do. The works that have as their motive vanity or selfishness make us neither better nor happier, and we shall receive no reward for them.

Happiness, as it can exist here below, consists in peace, in the joy of a good conscience. Our conscience will be joyous and peaceful if it know not remorse; it will not know remorse if we are careful not to offend God. To fly from sin is, therefore, the chief source of happiness on earth. If our conscience is pure, our life will be happy. There are none happier than saints, for there are none more innocent

Let us do good; let us avoid evil, and we shall be happy. "There is but one way," said a man of genius, "of being happy, and it is to do well all one's duties."

To continually maintain your peace of soul, keep in mind the presence of God, and do all things to please Him. Think also of your good Guardian Angel who is ever at your side; it will help you to avoid what is wrong and to preserve your equanimity.

Free gas stove and refrigerator to any parishioners in need. Contact Albert Daniel Kinnett at 513-205-9225 or albertkinnett@zoomtown.com.

LIFTED UP

Christ willed to die lifted up, first of all, to cleanse the heavens: for since He had cleansed the things on earth by the sanctity of His life, the things of the air were left to be cleansed by His death: "through Him He should reconcile all things to Himself, whether on earth or in the heavens, making peace through His blood" (Col 1:20). Secondly, to triumph over the demons who prepare for war in the air: "the prince of the power of the air" (Eph 2:2). Thirdly, He wished to die lifted up to draw our hearts to Himself: "I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all to Myself." And fourthly, because in the death on the cross He was lifted up in the sense that there He triumphed over His enemies; so it is not called a death, but a lifting up: "He will drink from the stream on the way, therefore He will lift up His head" (Ps 109:7). Fifthly, He willed to die lifted up because the cross was the reason for His being lifted up, i.e., exalted: "He became obedient to the Father even to death, the death of the cross; on account of which God has exalted Him" (Phil 2:8).

Now the fruit of Christ's passion is eternal life; hence He says, so that everyone who believes in Him, performing good works, may not be lost, but have eternal life. And this fruit corresponds to the fruit of the symbolic serpent. For whoever looked upon the serpent of bronze was freed from poison and his life was preserved. But he who looks upon the lifted up Son of Man and believes in the crucified Christ, he is freed from poison and sin: "Whoever believes in Me will never die," and is preserved for eternal life. "These things are written that you may believe...and that believing you my have life in His name."

- St. Thomas Aquinas

TRUST AND REST

Fret not, poor soul, while doubt and fear
Disturb thy breast;
The pitying angels, who can see
How vain thy wild regret must be,
Say, "Trust and rest."

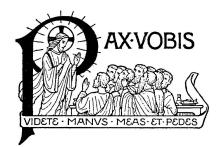

Plan not, nor scheme—but calmly wait;
His choice is best:
While blind and erring is thy sight,
His wisdom sees and judges right;
So trust and rest.

Strive not, nor struggle; thy poor might
Can never wrest
The meanest thing to serve thy will;
All power is His alone; be still,
And trust and rest.

Desire not; self-love is strong
Within thy breast;
And yet, He loves thee better still,
So let Him do His loving will—
And trust and rest.

What dost thou fear? His wisdom reigns
Supreme confessed:
His power is infinite; His love
Thy deepest, fondest dreams above—
So trust and rest.

▼ THE BISHOP'S NOTE **▼

The cats are not very expert at finding and getting rid of the mice over at the church...Judy, on the other hand, announced that she has caught four mice. We have other good hunters, too. Fr. Brueggemann has caught a number of raccoons and even a squirrel that have somehow made their way into the church ceiling or walls. All in a day's work here at St. Gertrude the Great!

We had two birthdays last week, Fr. Simpson's on April 23rd, and Fr. Lehtoranta's on April 26th. The two young fathers have been away for quite a while and the older fathers have been holding down the fort. It has been different without them and they are missed, but they come back this weekend. May 1st is Bishop Nkamuke's first anniversary of episcopal consecration. Say a prayer for him. A lot has happened in a year and his apostolate has grown by two more priests so that they now have as many in Nigeria as we have here at St. Gertrude's. It might seem like a lot of priests, but it still is not enough to do all the work that needs to be done. Just when another priest is ordained and we think we will finally be able to accomplish that work, even more work is added. Well, that is the way it should be in Our Lord's vineyard. The work should always be slightly more than one can handle or else we might be inclined, through fallen human nature, to rest on our laurels and become content with the status quo. This is not good enough, either in the spiritual life or in the apostolate. Our Lord intends for us to be constantly growing, increasing. If we begin to rest easy in the status quo then we begin to fall backwards—even in the apostolate. But all is the work of God and is brought to fruition by God's grace. We are always unprofitable servants.

Patricia Beck, a virtual parishioner from New Hampshire, died this past week. She had a rather aggressive form of cancer. She was a devout woman who has been, since the days of Bishop Dolan and Fr. Cekada, a good friend of us here at St. Gertrude's. Each year she would ask us to bless Epiphany Water (which Fr. Lehtoranta always kindly did), and she would send some little treats to us. I think she really enjoyed talking to our secretary, Theresa, too. In her last days she especially asked Theresa to pray for her. I thought that said a lot. Now we will do our best to get Mrs. Beck to heaven as soon as we can by our prayers and sacrifices. God rest her soul!

There are a lot of feast days to choose from this week, but don't neglect to come to Mass on First Friday, the feast of the Finding of the Holy Cross. The Relic of the True Cross will be exposed for veneration at each Mass. Oh! and don't forget to get your blessed Palm Crosses that day! You could come to the quiet 8am

Mass if you wish, or the beautiful High Mass with incense at 11:25; or swing by for the evening Mass and make a Holy Hour before the Blessed Sacrament exposed. But do come! There is a Holy Hour for Priests on First Thursday; St. Monica's Club will meet on their patroness's feast after the morning Masses on First Saturday. Personally, I have always liked St. Peter Martyr, while many in our day have a devotion to St. Athanasius, but we all have a love for the Holy Child Jesus, Doctor of the Sick. Their feast days come this week as well. I think you get the idea...come celebrate at least one of the feast days in church with us!

Time to sign off now. I send you a blessing.
